

Smartsettle Agreement

Fortunate Farmers Water Case

IN THE CASE BETWEEN

Crystal River Potato Farmers Cooperative
of 300 Crystal Road, Buenos Aires, Mexico

AND

Fortunate French Fry Company
of 200 Crystal Road, Buenos Aires, Mexico

WITH REGISTRY FILE NUMBER 30096306 IN THE PROVINCIAL COURT OF SOME PROVINCE ON COURT STREET IN BUENOS AIRES.

The matter in dispute shall be completely settled by the following action.

Before midnight on 23rd day of August in the year 2010, by registered mail postmarked to the address specified above, Fortunate French Fry Company shall submit plans to Crystal River Potato Farmers Cooperative as to how they will recycle at least 60 percent of the factory processing wastewater.

This Smartsettle Agreement

- is the result of a negotiation process with the Smartsettle eNegotiation System, begun on the 22nd day of July in the year 2010 and completed on the 23rd day of July in the year 2010,
- is confidential and may be filed with the court only in support of an Affidavit of Non-Compliance, and
- shall be binding and have the same force of law as if it was signed in person by both parties.

In the event of non-compliance parties shall continue with the current status quo.

I confirm that I have had sufficient opportunity to obtain whatever professional consultation and independent advice from accountants, lawyers, or other experts deemed appropriate to help me make a fully informed decision on the matter of this negotiation.

I have entered into this process having committed to not agreeing to anything that wouldn't be fair. I have also understood that any decision reached would be final and binding.

John Smith, President of Fortunate French Fry Company, accepted the exact wording in this Agreement online on the 22rd day of July in the year 2010. Mary Doe, President of Crystal River Potato Farmers Cooperative, accepted the exact wording in this Agreement online on the 22rd day of July in the year 2010.

#####